The SpeakEasy Singles social group will accent the "active" in its roster of scheduled April and early May activities.

On Saturday, April 10, the singles will host a spring celebration dance in the Wilson Student Union of West Virginia State University in Institute.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, with dancing from 8 p.m. until midnight.

DJ Charlie Shelton will provide the music.

Admission is $8 for SpeakEasy members and $10 for all others. Admission includes food; drinks will be available for $1 (no alcohol is permitted).

For more details about Saturday's dance, contact Alice at 304-766-2415 or Nancy at 304-744-1955 or nifty50inwv@gmail.com

SpeakEasy members invite non-dancers to take part, too, and enjoy socializing.

Approximately 180 people attended the singles' March dance.

On two Sundays this month, the SpeakEasy Singles will have recreational volleyball and cornhole games at the Dunbar Recreation Center.

Games will be played from 4 to 6 p.m., with dinner afterward for those who are interested.

Following the April 18 games, participants will have dinner at O'Charley's off Corridor G in South Charleston. On April 25, the dinner site is Casa Garcia at Riverwalk in South Charleston.

For volleyball and cornhole, admission is $2 for members and $4 for each non-member.

For further information about the Sunday afternoon events, contact Vicky at 304-205-4329 or Sheila at 304-545-0302.

You can also dispatch e-mail to speakeasysingles@suddenlink.net for additional details.

At 4 p.m. Saturday, May 1, the SpeakEasy Singles will convene at a member's house for a Kentucky Derby party. As well as watching the Run for the Roses on television, the party will include plenty of food and a ladies' hat contest.

To RSVP and receive directions, call 304-415-3833 or direct e-mail to grannydreama@hotmail.com.
