

Singles In West Virginia

October 25, 2:34 AM • West Virginia Travel Examiner • Cynthia Cox

If you are a single individual in West Virginia looking for a network of new friends and perhaps something to do to fill your calendar, why not join the Speak Easy Singles organization in the Charleston, WV area?

This singles organization caters to single, divorced or widowed clientele. Their foundation is based upon the concept of creating an entertaining outlet for singles. Their events promote sharing of common backgrounds with all participants leading to friendships through fun activities.

The Speak Easy Singles Halloween/Costume Party will commence on October 31, 2009.

The doors open at 7:30 pm at the WV State University in the Wilson Student Union - Room 135 located at Institute, WV.

DJ Randy Justice will bring the tunes that will keep you on your feet dancing while the costumes will keep you smiling competitively when the door prizes are given for various categories of your Halloween disguise.

This organization can fill your calendar with dates of creative and community events to accommodate your time with others who relate to the personal status of your life.

It is refreshing to realize the diversity in community networking that is housed in our Wild, Wonderful West Virginia mountains.
