

SpeakEasy Singles announce June activities

The SpeakEasy Singles social group will host a number of activities this month, including:

Saturday Morning Bike Rides, June 11, 25: Bicycle riders should meet Jerry and Keith at 10 a.m. at the University of Charleston for a casual ride through Kanawha City. Riders will stop along the way for yard sales, a possible lunch at the Cracker Barrel and a scenic return trip down backroads along the Kanawha River.

For more information, call Keith at 304-395-0182 or Jerry at 304-965-1458.

Wednesday Dance Lessons, June 8, 15, 22, 29:

Dance lessons are given every Wednesday night at the Knights of Pythias building on the corner of Randolph Street and Tennessee Avenue in Charleston. Some of the dances that will be taught are waltz, fox trot, swing (rock and roll) and cha-cha.

Classes are from 7 to 9 p.m. The cost is $3 per class. The teacher is George Alder, assisted by Ruth Justice.

For additional information, call Ruth at 304-766-1041.

Flip Flop Dance, June 11:

From 8 p.m. until midnight, the SpeakEasy Singles will host a "Flip Flop Dance" in the Wilson Student Union of West Virginia State University in Institute.

The admission price is $8 for SpeakEasy members and $10 for others. That includes food, with beverages available for $1 each (no alcohol is permitted).

Randy Justice will be the DJ.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m. for Saturday's dance.
