

Dancing, flood relief fundraiser among singles group's July activities

From Staff Reports

The SpeakEasy Singles social group will host or participate in a variety of activities this month.

Activities include a Patriotic Dance from 8 to 11 p.m. Saturday, July 16 in the Wilson Student Union of West Virginia State University in Institute. Admission is $10 per person, which includes food; no alcohol is permitted. For more information, phone 304-807-6285.

On Mondays, July 11, 18 and 25, West Coast Swing dance lessons will take place at Timothy's/Quarrier Diner on Quarrier Street in downtown Charleston. Admission is $5. Call 304-410-6357 for more details.

Doubt-It card games will be played, starting at 7 p.m. at the Cross Lanes home of a SpeakEasy Singles member. Those attending are asked to bring a snack. RSVP to Michele at 304-807-6285.

The fifth annual Nancy's Ice Cream Social is slated to start at 4 p.m. Sunday, July 17 in Campbells Creek.

Those attending should bring a covered dish (or make a donation) and lawn chair. Hot dogs and fixings and homemade ice cream will be served. Bags of ice will be appreciated. RSVP to Nancy by Friday, July 15 at 304-925-8024 or Nifty50in-WV@gmail.com

At 7 p.m. Friday, July 22, a flood relief fundraiser/concert will begin at the George S. Buckley Community Center, 8505 MacCorkle Ave. in Marmet. Bands scheduled to play include Recyle, No Regrets, Dixie Highway, Southern Cooking and JAB.

The SpeakEasy Singles will also meet for swimming at the Elkland Pool on Saturday, July 9 and Saturday, July 30.
