

Sock hop, supper and cinema on singles' November agenda

The SpeakEasy Singles social group will host a dance and dinner among its November calendar of activities.

On Saturday, Nov. 12, the group will vivify the Fifties with a sock hop dance on the campus of West Virginia State University in Institute. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. at the Wilson Student Union, where the dance will take place from 7 until 11 p.m.

Willie D & The Nitelife Band will supply the musical entertainment for the evening. Finger foods will be included with the admission price, which is $8 for SpeakEasy Singles members and $10 for nonmembers. Drinks will be available for $1 each, but no alcohol is permitted on the premises.

The sock hop is open to the public, and all are encouraged to dress in '50s apparel. (An appearance by Elvis Presley — or a reasonable facsimile thereof — has been rumored to possibly occur.)

For more information, call Alice at 304-766-2415 or call or e-mail Nancy at 304-744-1955 or nifty50inwv@gmail.com.

The singles will host dinner and a movie, starting at 6 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 19, as well. The dinner will take place at the Fifth Quarter Restaurant at Clendenin and Quarrier street in Charleston, between the Charleston Civic Center and Charleston Town Center.

Those attending are asked to arrive no later than 5:45 p.m.

After dinner, participants are invited to view a movie at the nearby Park Place Cinemas in downtown Charleston.

RSVPs for the dinner and movie are requested as soon as possible by calling 304-965-1458 or 304-546-0995.

The SpeakEasy Singles' full calendar of November events is available at www.speakeasysingles.com/calendars/nov2011cal.htm. For more information about joining the group, visit www.speakeasysingles.com, call 304-345-7810, direct e-mail to speakeasysingles@suddenlink.net or see the group's Facebook page, www.facebook.com/groups/SpeakEasySingles/.