The SpeakEasy Singles will have a pair of Saturday dances, Sunday volleyball and cornhole games and Thursday night dinners at various area restaurants this month.

On Saturday, Oct. 9, the Autumn Splendor Dance and spaghetti dinner will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight (doors open at 7:30 p.m.) in the Wilson Student Union of West Virginia State University in Institute.

Randy Justice will serve as the dance DJ.

Admission is $8 for SpeakEasy members and $10 for others. Food is included with the admission price; drinks are available for $1 each. No alcohol is permitted.

On Saturday, Oct. 30, the singles' Halloween dance and party will feature entertainment by Willie D and the Nitelife Band.

Prizes will be awarded for the funniest, scariest, most original and best overall costumes.

Ghoulish snacks, such as "finger foods," will be served.

Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. for the dance/party, which will also be held in the WVSU Wilson Student Union in Institute.

The singles will host recreational volleyball and cornhole from 4 to 6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 17, at the South Charleston Community Center. Admission is $3 for SpeakEasy members and $5 for others.

Players are invited to have dinner afterward at The Cold Spot in North Charleston.
